

"Adrianna"
by Gregg Standridge and Terry Ware

You're a whisper in my window
Never know what you might say
But you speak to all that I know
And help me get about my day
You're a picture in my back yard
The color of my smile
The slow song on my dance card
The only station on my dial

Adrianna, there's a secret in your smile
Would you stay a while with me, Adrianna
Adrianna, every time you look my way
You put the sunshine in my day, Adrianna

I fell your love surround me
Never failing to astound me
You know it's true
It's me and you
There's nothing left to say

Adrianna, there's a secret in your smile
Would you stay a while with me, Adrianna
Adrianna, every time you look my way
You put the sunshine in my day, Adrianna
Would you stay a while with me, Adrianna

Hey, Adrianna
Hey, Adrianna
